Teutons Stormed Position Under Cover of a Heavy Barrage Fire on the Morn of November 3—Big Guns Cut Off Detachments of American Troops

WASHINGTON, D. C., NOVEMBER 5

R. L. McDougal, Maryville

Deeply regret to inform you that private Frank E. McDougal. Co. F 16th Inft, is reported captured or missing.

McCAIN, adjutant general, U. S. Army

War is being brought home to the people of Maryville and Nodaway county in no uncertain manner. Frank E. McDougal, son of Judge and Mrs. R. L. McDougal, 833 East First street, is reported by army officials at Washington as either "captured or missing." The telegram above was received this morning at nine o'clock. Nothing further has been learned at a late hour this afternoon. No intimation had been received by members of the family that he was in the first line trenches. Two letters were received from him Saturday that were mailed on October 15, from "Somewhere in France," but having been censored, there was nothing that would lead to the belief that he was with the first troops to be advanced to the firing lines.

News of the telegram spread quickly this morning and the McDougal home on East First street was besieged by telephone and by callers, who wanted to know more particulars than rumor had given. Mrs. McDougal denied herself to all but intimate friends during the day, but to a Democrat-Forum reporter she said, "I am hoping for the best. The telegram gives only the fact that he is either captured or missing. I can only hope to have him back, but if he must be a sacrifice I am glad that it will be in the service of his country and in the cause of right and justice."

Frank E. McDougal was a pupil in the high school until last May, when he enlisted in the infantry and was sent to Jefferson Barracks. From there he went to El Paso, Texas, and from there joined the expeditionary forces that left with General Pershing about June 12. Letters have been received from him regularly since he arrived in France and contained little else than information that he was well and hard at work learning the art of modern warfare. Frank was nineteen years old. A brother, John McDougal, is in Y. M. C. A. work and is stationed at Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Armed forces under the American flag have had their first clash with Germaa soldiers in an attack which the Germans made on first line trenches where the United States troops had been taken for instruction. Three Americans were killed, five wounded and twelve captured or missing.

General Pershing reports the following names as Germany's first victims in the land warfare against the American forces:

Killed: Privates Thomas Enright, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Jas. B. Grasham, Evansville, Ind.; Aerle Hay, Glidden, Ia.

Wounded: Privates John Smith, Ludington, Mich.; Chas. Hopekins, Stanton, Tex.; Geo. Box, Altus, Okla.; Homer Givens, Cloverdale, Ala.; Chas. Orr, Lyons, Kan.

Captured or missing: Searg. Edw. Halyburton, Stony Point, N. C.; Corp. Edw. Haines, Woodward, Okla.; privates, Hershel Gedfrey, Chicago; Vernon Kendall, Rolla, Okla.; William Grigsby, Louisville, Ky.; Frank E. McDougal, Maryville, Mo.; Daniel Salager, Blockton, Ala.; John Lester, Tutwater, Miss.; Harry Langman, Chicago; Dewey A. Kern, Collins, Ia.; private Keckon, cannot be identified; corporal Edward Haines, Jersey City.

A dispatch from General Pershing shows that German forces, soon after learning the position of the new enemy from overseas, had launched a desperate effort to overcome them. The Teuton attack came in the form of a heavy barrage fire, which isolated a salient of the American trench and apparently left a small force of Americans at the mercy of their enemies. That the American soldiers fought gamely is shown by Pershing's report of a prisoner being taken by them. How some of his troops escaped, bringing this German back with them, is not told in the brief dispatch from the American commander.

Many French and British military writers have warned America that Germany would hurl terrific blows at the Americans as soon as news of their location reached the German side, and when the Americans went into the trenches war department officials here predicted this might happen. It was pointed out that this was a favorite trick of the Germans when British territorials from Canada and Australia went into the trenches for the first time.

UNDER THE 'BIG TOP'

FAIR AT HIGH SCHOOL WAS A HOWLING SUCCESS.

SWELL CLASS FUND $153

Members of Beginning Senior Class Entertained With the Most Pretentious Show Ever Put on.

Every show was worth the money, from the big street parade, which didn't cost a cent to the main show under the "big top," for which a dime was the price of admission. Phineas T. Barnum, whose sacred white elephants and petrified giants coaxed dollars from the pockets of an unsuspecting public would have looked like an ordinary panhandles alongside the strange and startling "acts" produced by the managers of the "County Fair" at the High school Saturday night. The name "County Fair" did not begin to tell the story—and it's one worth telling, including the names of the "performers."

The populace wasn't quite expecting it, so modest were the advance men and press agents. Even the advertising posters were devoid of such descriptions and alliteration as ought to have delighted the heart of a true showman. It was not until you had visited the "Great Underground Maze" and felt the flopping wet rags and stumbled over precipices and climbed precipitous heights, that it really began to dawn on you that you were in for an evening of strenuous amusement. It was more than strenuous, it was vehement at times.

As is customary, the crowds visited the "side shows" first while the ringmasters prepared the main event.

"Bluebeard's Wives," in spite of the gruesomeness of the spectacle, had a fascination for the crowds. Four of them were left to tell the tale, four pretty human heads with faces attached hung from tresses matted with blood, just like the story tells. It was a hard job for the performers, for rude persons in the audience who tried to make them laugh proved a severe tax on ability to keep faces straight.

Here Was a Mystery.

"The Lilliputians" were the cute things—four of them and what jolly songs they sung and intricate dances they danced. The crowds willingly paid the small admission fee over and over to watch them, and the secret of their performance is still kept—for some.

A baby show was a little shy on entries, there were only three entered—but each one was a prize winner and well behaved infants as they cooed and chirped from baby buggies and cradles.

"The newest dance steps" was a riot. The management had to close the doors early in the evening on account of the crush to get in.

The "agricultural department" did not contain quite as much as was seen at the Normal show, but the variety was there, mostly monstrosities "collected at stupendous cost from the continents of the earth."

In the Japanese tea garden, worshipers of Nippon sat amid fragrant blossoms and sipped tea while a beautiful girl danced for their entertainment. You wanted to stay longer with the dainty little Japs, but the band played for the main show and the spielers kept you from hearing the dance music, so you went.

A Show Worth While.

It was a melange of music, song, costumes, minstrelsy and pretty girls. There was action from the time the curtain went up, beginning with a

GOING ON A HUSKING BEE

Epworth Leaguers Will Spend the Evening Next Thursday at the Hartness Dairy Farm.

An old time husking bee with the boys in overalls and the girls gowned in gingham aprons is going to provide an evening of entertainment and profit Thursday night when members of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church to go to the Ernest Hartness' dairy barn northeast of town to help him husk several hundred bushels of corn. Enthusiastic young huskers have almost depleted the stock of local dealers who sell the "things you strap on your hand." Just how much corn will be husked is problematical, but the Leaguers hope to fill the bins. Friends of the society are invited to join in the evening's engagement.

ASK ROOMS FOR DELEGATES

Committee Hopes to Have Enough to Care for all Who May Come to State Convention Nov. 20-23.

The several committees who will list the rooms in the city available for delegates to the State Sunday School Convention November 20-22 started the canvass this morning and will visit all the homes in the city. Maryville has invited the convention here and expects to take care of the visitors and will sustain the town's reputation for hospitality. It is pointed out that the convention is not a denominational affair, as delegates from all denominations will be here for the three days convention and it is up to the people of the city to care for them, even if it means some slight discomfort for awhile.

It is suggested that if the canvassers do not see everybody, that those who have not been seen, telephone the fact that they have available rooms to the chairman of the various committees in the ward in which they live.

The committees are. First ward—Mrs. Gallatin Craig (with Mrs. O. L. Holmes) and Mrs. Charles Wadley.

Second ward—Mrs. Barry and Mrs. Marvin Peery.

Third ward—Mrs. J. S. Shinabargar and Mrs. Arthur M .Crooke.

Fourth ward—Mrs. Guy Haller and Mrs. J. S. Ford.

Hotels and restaurants—Miss Katherine Helwig and Miss Julia Denny.

BOLD AUTO THIEVES

ELMER DIX AND PERRY HARTNESS COME TO GRIEF AGAIN.

A THIRD MAN ESCAPED

Took Car From Garage of Ed Hackett at Burlington Junction—Caught Near Braddyville, Iowa.

Elmer ("Pat") Dicks, Perry Hartness and a third man whose name is unknown, made an unsuccessful attempt to steal a seven passenger Buick automobile from the home of B. Ed Hackett, at Burlington Junction early this morning. The pair are in jail, having waived preliminary trial on a charge of burglary and larceny before Justice Johnson this afternoon and bond was fixed at $1,000 each.

Mrs. Hackett was aroused at her home just east of the Junction shortly before daylight this morning when she heard an automobile chugging out of the garage a short distance from the house. She called Mr. Hackett, who took a gun and went out to see what the trouble was. He arrived in time to see the car going east. He went back and called R. N. Barber, a neighbor and together in the latter's car they started to hunt for the thieves, but soon lost the trail.

A short time later constable H. B. Spear, at Braddyville, heard that a car had run off a bridge a short distance from town and went to see who might be hurt. They proved to be the men who had the Hackett car. Being suspicious, one of the men drew a gun on the constable and the deputy who was with him and in the scuffle that ensued the third man got away. Dicks and Hartness were placed in the Braddyville jail and Sheriff Dowden notified. He went at once after them and brought them to Maryville, where Mr. Hackett appeared against them when they were arraigned this afternoon.

Both Dicks and Hartness have served penitentiary sentences, having been convicted on charges of theft and burglary at Burlington Junction, where they live. Bloodhounds were sent for and put on the trail of the man who escaped and it is hoped to have him in custody before night.

Miss Myrtle Lanning of Millerton, N. D. arrived in Maryville last Thursday night for a visit with friends and relatives.

With the duck hunting season in full sway and the open season on quail only a few days away, hunters this year are entering into the sport of shooting wild game with more enthusiasm than ever before. The high cost of living and conservation of the nation's food supply are given as reasons for this.

Reports from local sporting goods dealers and hunters say that game thus far is more plentiful than it has been in years.

BROKEN DOWN IN HEALTH

Woman Tells How $5 Worth of Pinkham's Compound Made Her Well.

Lima, Ohio.—"I was all broken down in health from a displacement. One of my lady friends came to see me and she advised me to commence taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I began taking your remedies and took $5.00 worth and in two months was a well woman after three doctors said I never would stand up straight again. I was a midwife for seven years and I recommended the Vegetable Compound to every woman to take before birth and afterwards, and they all got along so nicely that it surely is a godsend to suffering women. If women wish to write to me I will be delighted to answer them."—Mrs. JENNIE MOYER, 342 E. North St., Lima, Ohio.

Women who suffer from displacements, weakness, irregularities, nervousness, backache, or bearing-down pains, need the tonic properties of the roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Why shouldn't they? BAPTIST REVIVAL GOES ON

Three Services Yesterday Were Attended by Good Crowds—Enjoy Singing of David Hughes.

Three well attended services at the Baptist church yesterday marked the beginning of the second week of the revival being conducted by E. F. Wright of Williamsburg, Ky. In the afternoon a sermon for men and boys drew a crowd that filled the auditorium. Dr. Wright spoke on the "masculine touch in religion," and insisted that men take a larger interest in their ministers and things religious. "Some of you men seem to think that ministers have certain feminine characteristics that put them out of the 'man' class. They're men like yourselves—get acquainted with them and help them do the work they have to do—and its your work, too, said the speaker.

Speaking of the men in war, Dr. Wright urged that the "sob stuff" be eliminated and that letters to them should contain only words of encouragement.

In the evening, besides the sermon by Dr. Wright, David Hughes of New Port, Ky, choir leader and tenor soloist made a most favorable impression. Mr. Hughes sang two solos that were greatly enjoyed. The meetings will continue nightly.

Soy Bean and Whole Wheat Meal Biscuits.

Biscuits made of soy bean meal and whole wheat meal are delicious breakfast food, says today's bulletin of the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, co-operating with this newspaper to conserve the food supply of the country. Here is a recipe for these biscuits:

1 cup soy bean meal.
1 cup whole wheat meal.
1 teaspoon salt.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
1 tablespoon sugar.
2 tablespoons shortening.
Liquid sufficient to mix (about ¾ cup).

All measurements are level full. Sift together the meal, salt and baking powder twice. Have the shortening as cold as possible and cut it into the mixture with a knife, finally rubbing it in with the hands. Mix quickly with the cold liquid (milk, skim milk or water), forming a fairly soft dough which can be rolled on the board. Turn onto a floured board; roll into a sheet not over ½ inch thick; cut into rounds; place these in lightly floured biscuit tins (or shallow pans), and bake 10 to 12 minutes in a rather hot oven.

50-50 Soy Bean Wafers.

¾ cup soy bean meal.
¾ cup sifted wheat flour.
½ teaspoon salt.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
3-8 cup sugar.
1 ounce butter.
Milk enough to mix (about ¼ cup).

Sift together the flour, soy bean meal, salt and baking powder twice. Cream together the sugar and butter and add to it a portion of the milk. Alternately add the flour mixture and more milk until the dough is of such consistency that it can be rolled on the board. Turn onto a floured board; roll very thin, (about 1-8 inch), cut with a biscuit cutter; place in greased shallow pans, and bake 10 minutes in a fairly hot oven or until a delicate brown.

MINIMUM HOG PRICE IS SET

$15.50 a Hundred Agreed Upon—Chicago Conference Will Fix Other Live Stock Prices Soon.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Preliminary steps in the federal government's plan to determine fair meat prices were taken here Saturday at a conference between Joseph P. Cotton, chief of the United States food administration's meat division, and representatives of the principal live stock exchanges of the country, when a minimum figure of $15.50 a hundred pounds for hogs was agreed upon. Minimum prices on other live stock, it is said, will be announced soon, followed by maximum wholesale price and possibly retail prices later.

Hogs during the last year have ranged close to the $20 mark and today were quoted at $17.10, a decline in Chicago. The purpose of the conference today was to devise means of stabilizing prices and regulate production and distribution of hogs and other live stock.

With a demand for 20,000,000 more hogs this year than the normal production, the national food production forces have been working to stimulate production to the maximum. The farmers, it is said, insisted upon assurance by the new governmental regulation of the packing industry that such practices as "dropping the market" on days when shipments were heavy would be abolished.

URIC ACID!

Every since the discovery of Scheele in 1775 that uric acid was found within the body—most eminent physicians agree that rheumatism is caused by it; also many distressing symptoms as headache, pain in back, stomach distress, swollen feet and ankles, gout, etc. Neglected kidney trouble is responsible.

It was Dr. Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., who discovered a new agent— called Anuric, a harmless remedy—that if taken before meals will carry off the uric acid from the system and in this way the pains and aches, the creaky joints and all the distressing symptoms of rheumatism and other maladies disappear. You can easily prove this yourself by obtaining Anuric at almost any drug store, or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial pkg. Try it and be convinced Anuric is many times more active than lithia and eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then — a bad breath — a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Coming of a GREAT ENGINE

It Makes High Power Out of Low Grade Gas

Men who drive cars are face to face with a condition that becomes more and more serious each day.

That condition is the constantly declining grade of gasoline.

Nearly every engineer has said goodby forever to high-grade gas.

For the moment, and possibly for all time, multi-cylinders, counter balanced crankshafts, and little tricks with valves give way in engineers' discussions to the "gas problem".

Every alert engineer is bending his utmost to make "one drop of gas now do the work of two".

Just as great situations produce great men, so out of this condition has come a great engine.

It is a Chalmers.

It makes high power out of low grade gas.

Compared with other engines of the same size or thereabouts, it shows:

More power More rapid acceleration
Greater economy Greater length of life
Greater smoothness

And an amazing ability to start quickly on a cold day, and to "warm up" without delay.

The Chalmers engine is a simple one. That is one reason why it is so good.

In many engines of the moment the gas passes on its way from the carburetor to the cylinder through a tunnel, which runs all the way through the engine block.

Before the gas gets to the cylinder it is forced to turn many sharp angles and does not become completely mixed with the air.

This results in raw gas running into not only one but all the cylinders, particularly when the car is cold, and especially when running for the first five or ten miles.

In the case of the Chalmers engine this type of intake manifold has been completely eliminated.

A new manifold, termed "The Ramshorn," has been constructed of simple piping. It is on the exterior of the engine. It is a manifold of easy curves so that there are no sharp corners for the raw gas to lodge against and be pushed into the cylinders.

The next development was to give the gas the proper amount of heat after it came from the carburetor.

What is termed a "hot plate" is built in at the top of the throat of the carburetor so that the gas coming straight up from the carburetor hits the "hot plate", the dimensions of which have been worked out very scientifically, and then passes around the easy curves of the smooth manifold in a perfect state of mixture and at the proper temperature to each of the cylinders.

The case of this Chalmers engine has been proved.

1. On August 1 and 2, Joe Dawson drove a Chalmers equipped with this same engine 1,898 miles in 24 hours—faster and farther than anyone ever before had traveled on land, sea or air.

If there's a flaw in pattern, or part, a solid day of bitter, brutal speed will find it.

2. There are over 1,000 Chalmers containing this engine now in use. They check up past all expectations.

Therefore, the Maxwell Motor Company, which has leased The Chalmers Motor Company, has put its O. K. on this engine, and accordingly on the Chalmers car.

90 per cent of any automobile is the engine; and no car can be a bit better than its engine.

So you are safe in writing your check for a Chalmers.
